THE REACTION UNEXPLAINED

Profit Taking Not Pushed Urgently at the Expense of Values.

NEW YORK, October 22 .- A pro cess of digestion of speculative profits ket, and its effect on prices was quite clearly manifest no prices was due to a clearly manifest in the day went on. Transactions during the first hour wers on a very large scale, and the market had all the appearance of great strength and animation at that time. Warehouses and commission houses reported a considerable increase in volume of orders from outside source. The reaction which followed lacked explanation in the news of the day quits as much as the rise of yesterday. Dealings continued much congested in a few stocks. Realizing was detected, and when the professional element of the room trade attempted to follow the movement by short sales the market fell into duliness. The profit-taking was not pushed urgently at the expense of values. Incidents in the news were unimportant and seemed to have little effect on the market.

An item of the day's news that had a cheering influence was the purchase clearly manifest as the day went on. a cheering influence was the purchase of some large orders of print cloth for future delivery from the New England Rains in the West were of good

CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS

Colonel Graves on Stump.

GLOVERVILLE, N. Y., October 22.—
John Temple Graves, vice-presidential candidate of the Independence party, addressed several hundred of the voters of Gloversville early to-night. Colonel Graves devoted his attention to a discussion of the industrial conditions of the country and pointed out the relief which the platform of the Independence party would afford the working men, saying that the threat of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeal to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of industrial slavery makes instant appeared to the suggestion of attempting to collect money alleged to be due on notes signed by Winston, when such notes were obtained by the practice of usury, constituting a crime against the Commonwealth of Virginia. It is also alleged that Tolman well knew that such notes could not be collected, claiming that his effort to collect them by civil process constituted contempt of court.

COLORED REFORMATORY FULL, SO BOY IS SENT TO JAIL

Robert Hubbard, a small colored boy, was put under $500 bond in the Police Court yesterday morning by Acting Justice Graves. He was convicted of having stolen a pair of shoes, a bi-cycle and other articles.

The court would have sent him to the Reformatory but for the fact that it is overcrowded and that all of the jails in the State are holding candi-dates for admission. There are now in the city jail ten youngsters waiting for admission.
